

Chinese Class for High School Students

*Sponsored by the National K-12 Foreign Language Resource Center,
at Iowa State University
June 23-27, 2008*

Do you want to begin learning Chinese?

- Unique opportunity for internationally-focused students
- Beginning Chinese language and culture class
- Small class, limited number of openings
- Held on the Iowa State University campus
- Monday, June 23 to Friday, June 27, 2008 from 10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.
- $50 registration fee
- You will receive $100 if you have perfect attendance for the 5 days!
- Taught by a native speaker of Chinese. Other teachers of Chinese participating in a professional development institute will also collaborate with and observe the classes.

What are the eligibility requirements?

- 10-12th grade high school students as of August 2008
- Commitment to learning Chinese
- No previous instruction/experience in Chinese
- Daily attendance is required

How do I apply?

- Submit an online application at <http://nflrc.iastate.edu/chinesehighschool>
- Priority given to students who apply by April 30, 2008
- Students who are accepted will be notified by May 16, 2008 or until spaces are filled

*For more information contact the NFLRC:
515-294-6699; nflrc@iastate.edu*